NOTES OF THE GAME.

Gray fanned Daniels, the first man up, in the opening session.

The Yanks were put down in one-twothree order as a starter.

Austin tried his best to hit through Mc-Bride when Cree started for the middle sack in the second, but Mac picked up the sphere handily.

Bob Unglaub pasted a beauty that was going a mile a minute for the clubhouse in the second, but Birdle Cree snagged the ball on the run, and held Bob at first.

Kid Elberfeld and Bob Unglaub pulled off the hit and run game in the fourth. with two down, but both the hits were wasted, for Ainsmith fouled out to Cree had the plate stolen in the fifth, with two men down, but Fisher, who was at the bat, rolled an easy grounder to Gray, ending the inning.

Gardner robbed Gray of a single in the fifth by dashing over second and spearing the pill with his gloved hand. Tough

Milan caught Austin asleep in the fifth and dumped the ball down the third-base line, easily beating the throw to first.

After Chase had walked in the sixth, with two down, Knight dropped a little bunt in front of the pan, and beat Gray's throw to first, but Dolly had Gardner's number, and fanned the Yankee second baseman on three pitched balls.
